Delaware, OH: -- A special meeting of the Delaware County District Library (DCDL) Board of Trustees will take place virtually on Monday, July 13, 2020 at 10:00 a.m.

On the agenda for discussion is the Library's COVID-19 protocols and policies, Governor DeWine's color-coded coronavirus warning system, and the implications of both for the Library.

The meeting will consist of at least a quorum of all members of the DCDL Board of Trustees.

Trustees will gather on the Zoom platform and their meeting will be streamed live via the Delaware County District Library Facebook page, located at www.facebook.com/delawarelibrary.

Comments received during the live stream on Facebook may have to be addressed by staff at a later date.
